
Kurse

1986
PROGRAMME

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

Institute of Archaeology

SUMMER SCHOOLS

31-34 GORDON SQUARE, LONDON WC1H 0PY
Telephone 01 387 9651

The programmes for July/August 1986 offer a selection of individual short courses covering the following topics:

ARCHAEOLOGY

The Protection of Archaeological Sites
Identification of Plant Remains
Drawing of Archaeological Finds
Archaeological Field Techniques:
Excavation at Lewes Castle
Disease: The Archaeological Evidence
The Civilisations of Ancient America

Surveying for Archaeologists
Roman London
Identification of Roman Coins
Geoarchaeology
Stone Tools Technology
Underwater Archaeology
Identification of Animal Bones

CONSERVATION

Identification of Fibres
Stone: Technology and Conservation
Synthetic Resins and their Use in Conservation
Navigational Instruments Conservation
Workshop
Conserving Photographs
Greek Pottery Restoration Workshop
Ancient Jewellery — Technology and History
Wall Paintings Restoration Techniques
Conservation of Archival Material

Protection of Archaeological Sites
Ethnographic Conservation Workshop
Colour, Dyes and Pigments
Photography of Objects
Ceramics Technology
Pest Control in Museums
Climate Control in Museums
The Restoration of Porcelain
Textile Conservation Workshop
Metallography of Ancient Metals
Making High Quality Replicas of Museum Objects

Most courses run for five days. To avoid disappointment early application is advisable, particularly for those wishing to attend several courses. To receive further details please write to James Black, Summer Schools Co-ordinator at the above address.

N.B. Prospective participants in North America who would like further information on the Institute, the Summer School and possible credit arrangements may like to call/write to: Professor Patricia Rice, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, West Virginia University, Morgantown, WV 26506. Telephone (304) 293-5801.

The Conservation Summer School is supported by ICCROM and The Museums and Galleries Commission.