Notes for contributors

Themes and deadlines

TA 107 Championing employers who make a difference: We're looking to share stories from employees where organisation have offered that something extra: training opportunities, flexible working, diversity, environmental policies, or innovative communication, for example. What makes you and your colleagues feel valued?

Deadline 1 April 2019

TA 108 Climate change: During the dry summer of 2018 we were blessed with some amazing aerial images of many new or forgotten archaeological sites. On a more serious note how does climate change have the potential to impact archaeologists and the archaeology itself? Deadline 1 August 2019

Contributions to The Archaeologist are encouraged.

Please get in touch if you would like to discuss ideas for articles, opinion pieces or interviews.

We now invite submission of 100–150-word abstracts for articles on the theme of forthcoming issues. Abstracts must be accompanied by at least three hi-resolution images (at least 300dpi) in jpeg or tiff format, along with the appropriate photo captions and credits for each image listed within the text document. The editorial team will get in touch regarding selection and final submissions.

We request that all authors pay close attention to CifA house style guidance, which can be found on the website: www.archaeologists.net/publications/notesforauthors

TA is made digitally available through the CifA website and if this raises copyright issues for any authors, artists or photographers, please notify the editor. Copyright of content and illustrations remain with the author, and that of final design with CifA. Authors are responsible for obtaining reproduction rights and for providing the editor with appropriate image captions and credits. Opinions expressed in The Archaeologist are those of the authors and not necessarily those of CifA.
