

Die AutorInnen

Dana Jirouš

Dana Jirouš is Ph.D. candidate at the Chair of International Relations, Institute of Political Sciences, University of Leipzig. Her dissertation is on "Violence and Remembrance. The Presence of the Past in the Ingush-Ossetian Armed Conflict". Contact: jirous@owen-berlin.de

Stefanie Rämmler

Stefanie Rämmler is Ph.D. candidate and research associate at the Chair of International Relations, Institute of Political Sciences, University of Leipzig. Her dissertation is on "Organizational learning in the European Union". Contact: raemmler@rz.uni-leipzig.de

Hannes Warnecke

Since 2010, Hannes Warnecke is Ph.D. candidate at the Chair of International Relations, Institute of Political Sciences, University of Leipzig. His dissertation is on the causes of forms of violence in El Salvador, Belize and Jamaica. Contact: hannes.warnecke@uni-leipzig.de

Heidrun Zinecker

Chair of International Relations at the Institute of Political Sciences, University of Leipzig. Diploma: University of Leningrad. PhD and Habilitation: University of Leipzig. Field Research in El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Colombia and Mexico. Visiting Fellowship in Moscow, Habana, Bogotá, Oxford, Madrid, Santiago de Chile, Austin and Santa Barbara. Contact: zinecker@uni-leipzig.de