APPEARANCE

Interface Critique initiates interdisciplinary dialogues about the historical, societal, political, cultural, artistic, and aesthetic dimensions of the interface and encourages comprehensive, interdisciplinary perspectives to promote an understanding of the interface as a dynamic cultural phenomenon. We invite submissions (original papers, project or artwork descriptions) in English and do not charge any author fees. Please send an abstract of no more than 400 words to hello@interfacecritique.net. For further information, including the Interface Critique book series, visit <https://www.interfacecritique.net>.
