

Tagungsprogramm | Conference programme

Thursday, 7 November 2019

9.00

Opening Session

Welcome by Hosts and Organisers

Prof. Dr. Jörg Haspel und Prof. Dr. Toshiyuki Kono, ICOMOS
Christine Strobl, Mayor of the City of Munich
Dr. Hans-Jürgen Vogel, Former Governing Mayor of the City of Munich (video message)

Addresses of Welcome

Dr. Markus Kerber, State Secretary at the Federal Ministry of the Interior, Building and Community
Bernd Sibler, Bavarian Minister of State for Science and the Arts
Prof. Dr. Gudrun Doll-Tepper, Vice President of the German
Olympic Sports Confederation

9.30

Section 1: Introductions

Elisabeth Spieker, „Welterbe Olympiapark München“ e.V.
Olympische Stadtkronen – der Beitrag von München 1972
zur modernen Sportarchitektur

Miranda Kiuri, University of Liège

Historic Sport Facilities between Conservation and Conversion

Sigrid Brandt, ICOMOS Deutschland

Das architektonische Erbe von Pierre de Coubertin

11.30

Section 2: Olympic Facilities – Architectural Icons of the 20th Century

Toshiyuki Kono, ICOMOS Japan

Tokio 1964/2020 – die Olympischen Sportstätten von 1964
und ihre Rolle für die Olympiade 2020

Enrique Xavier de Anda Alanis, ICOMOS Mexico

The Mexican Olympic Games Buildings of 1968 –
Another Debate about their Place in Architectural Culture

Dinu Bumbaru, ICOMOS Canada

Montreal Olympic Park (1976), a Living Heritage

14.00

Visit to the Munich Olympic site: Guided tours provided by the Olympiapark GmbH, the Bavarian Monument Conservation Authority, the Untere Denkmalschutzbehörde Munich and the Einwohner-Interessen-Gemeinschaft Olympisches Dorf e.V.

16.00

Section 3, Part 1: Historic Olympic Facilities – between Conservation and Conversion

Frank Guridy, Columbia University, New York

Los Angeles 1932/1984: “Bringing the World to Los Angeles” –
Memorial Coliseum and the Rise of a Global City

Marieke Kuipers, ICOMOS Netherlands

The Olympic Heritage in Amsterdam (1928)

Riita Salastie, ICOMOS Finland

The Olympic Heritage in Helsinki (1940/1952): Facing the Inevitable Change – Does Conservation Still Make Sense?

Calogero Bellanca/Susana Mora Alonso-Muneyerro

The Olympic Heritage of Sport in Rome (1960) –
Examples and State of Conservation

19.30

Evening event: Olympics 72 – Heritage and Responsibility

Venue: Haus der Kunst, Terrassensaal, Prinzregentenstr. 1

Friday, 8 November 2019

9.00

Section 3, Part 2: Historic Olympic Facilities – between Conservation and Conversion

Werner Skrentny, Hamburg

Olympische Wegwerfarchitektur? Das bauliche Erbe des Sports
als Ressource

Anna Maria Odenthal, ICOMOS Deutschland

Rückblick und Ausblick: Das Berliner Olympiastadion und
Olympiagelände von 1936

Nikolai Vassiliev, DOCOMOMO Russia

Today's State of the Post-war Heritage of Sport and Olympic Games in Moscow (1956/1980)

11.00

Section 4: Olympics – Urban Development and Landscape Planning through Sport

Sandra Zenk, Stadt Eschborn, Stabsstelle Stadtentwicklung

Olympische Sommerspiele und Stadtentwicklung

Regine Keller, Technische Universität München

Der Olympiapark München – demokratisches Grün als
Gesamtkunstwerk

13.00

Section 5: The Olympic Heritage – Excursuses

Jean Paul Blay, Université de Paris X-Nanterre

De la norme olympique au projet architectural – les années pionnières (1894–1936)

Laura Alexandra Brown, Northumbria University Newcastle

Architectural Heritage in the Post-1948 European Summer Olympic Host Cities

Ugo Carughi with Rosalia Vittorini, DOCOMOMO Italy

The Legacy of Rome 1960 – a New Strategy of Conservation “in net”
of the Flaminio Stadium by Nervi

Jörg Stabenow, Philipps-Universität Marburg

Utopie und Monument. Traditionslinien der Moderne zum
Münchener Olympiapark

15.30

Panel Discussion: The World Heritage Potential of the Modern Olympic Summer Games

Video message: Thomas Bach, President of the International Olympic Committee (IOC)

On the podium:

Jörg Haspel, ICOMOS Deutschland
Miranda Kiuri, University of Liège
Volkwin Marg, gmp-Architekten, Hamburg
Toshiyuki Kono, ICOMOS International

17.00

End of conference