
CONFERENCE DIARY

13th International Conference of the European Ceramic Society

Limoges, France. 23-27 June 2013.

The ECerS XIII Conference is organised by the French Ceramic Group and is hosted by the Ceramic European Center, the University of Limoges and the National Engineering College for Industrial Ceramics. The meeting will address a broad range of topics on ceramic science and technology from basic to applied science in relationship with major issues such as energy, environment, information and communication technologies, biotechnologies.

More information about the conference can be found at:

<http://www.ecers2013.fr/events.php?IDManif=707&IDModule=71&IDRub=368>

19th European Association of Archaeologists (EAA) Annual Meeting
Pilsen, Czech Republic. September 4-8, 2013.

The meeting offers a scientific programme reflecting the current issues of European archaeology and beyond.

More information about the conference can be found at: <http://www.eaa2013.cz/>

12th European Meeting on Ancient Ceramics (EMAC 2013)
Padova, Italy. September 19-21, 2013.

The conference will focus on the methodological development and use of scientific techniques in the study of archaeological and historical ceramic materials, dating ceramics, experimental firing, technology and provenance, alteration and conservation, glazed pottery, ceramics as building materials and technical ceramics.

More information about the conference can be found at: <http://emac2013.geoscienze.unipd.it/>

Traditions and Innovations: tracking the development of pottery from the Late Classical to the Early Imperial periods (IARPotHP)
Berlin, Germany. 7-10 November 2013.

The conference will bring together archaeologists who work throughout the Mediterranean basin, in the Orient and Far East.

More information about the conference can be found at: http://iarpothp.org/conferences_en.html

LRCW 5: Fifth International Conference on Late Roman Coarse Wares, Cooking Wares and Amphorae in the Mediterranean. Archaeology and Archaeometry.
Alexandria, Egypt. 6-10 April 2014

The aim of the conference is the presentation of recent research on Late Roman coarse wares, cooking wares and amphorae from the 4th to 7th century AD. Different themes on production centres and workshops of the Mediterranean will be discussed including archaeometry and origin of the ceramics, typology and chronology, archaeology and economic history, and regional contexts (Egypt, Eastern and Western Mediterranean).

More information about the conference can be found at: http://www.cealex.org/lrcw5_1/index_E.php

OLD POTTER'S ALMANACK

The deadline for copy of articles for the next issue of the OPA is 30th October 2013. Copy and other information, news and events should be sent to:

Hon. Editor of the OPA:

Michela Spataro
Dept. of Conservation & Scientific Research
The British Museum, London WC1B 3DG
Email: MSpataro@thebritishmuseum.ac.uk

Ceramic Petrology Group (CPG),

Hon. President:

Louise Joyner

Ceramic Petrology Group, Hon. Secretary:

Alice Hunt
Institute of Archaeology, University College London
31-34 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0PY
Email: alice.hunt@ucl.ac.uk

ALL MEMBERSHIP ENQUIRIES SHOULD BE SENT TO ALICE HUNT

Prehistoric Ceramics Research Group (PCRG)

Secretary:

Sarah Percival
NPS Archaeology, Scandic House
85 Mountergate, Norwich NR1 1PY
Email: sarah.percival@nps.co.uk

Prehistoric Ceramics Research Group Treasurer:

Sandy Budden
Archaeology, University of Southampton, Avenue Campus, Highfield Road, Southampton SO17 1BF
Email: S.A.Budden@soton.ac.uk

THE OLD POTTER'S ALMANACK is the joint letter of the Ceramic Petrology Group and the Prehistoric Ceramics Research Group. Please address any enquiries regarding OPA circulation to: Michela Spataro, Dept. of Conservation & Scientific Research, The British Museum, London WC1B 3DG

Email: MSpataro@thebritishmuseum.ac.uk

Copy for future issues should be sent to her as Hon. Editor of the OPA. All other enquiries should be sent to the relevant contact person in either the CPG or the PCRG as listed above.

WEBSITE

Prehistoric Ceramics Research Group
<http://www.perg.org.uk/>
